London, March 13.

Yesterday arrived the Mail from France.

Constantinople, January 19.

'SINCE the Grand Signior has married one of his Daughters to the Grand Vizier's Son, he has given two others of his Daughters in Marriage to the Grand Viziers Nephews, Masters of Ceremony. M. Dierling, the Imperial Minister, has renewed assured the Grand Vizier that his Imperial Majesty is firmly resolved religiously to observe the Peace of Carlowitz, and to concern himself no further in the Differences between the Porte and the Czar, than by interposing his good Offices as Mediator, if desired. This Declaration was the more acceptable to the Prote, by Reason of the uncertainty the Grand Signior was under, how far the Emperour would take Part in that Matter. The Report that the Turkish Army has been defeated by the Persians, is altogether groundless: Since we have Advice, that the Turkish Forces are advanced as far as Ispahan, from whence Miriweys is retired with a small Body into the same Province, where he did first rise in Rebellion against the Sophi. The Rumours which are daily spread here about Peace and War are so contradictory, that we cannot depend on them at all.

Paris, March 18. On the 16th Instant in the Morning, an Extraordinary Courier arrived at Versailles from Rome, with an Account that Pope Innocent the XIIIth departed this Life the 7th at Night, aged 68 Years, 9 Months, and 21 Days; being born the 13th of May 1655; and in the 3d Year of his Pontificate. A Marriage is declared between the Duke of Orleans and a Princess of Baden, Daughter of Prince Lewis of Baden. The Commissaries of the Nightly Watch are very diligent in searching all the Publick Houses in this City, and in taking an Account of the Names and Quality of all suspicious Persons. The Cardinals de Rohan and de Bissy are setting forward with all Expedition to Rome, upon the News of the Pope's Death, in order to assist at the Conclave. The Actions are at 2130 Livres.

The said Governour and Company do further give Notice, That the Bearer of any Blanks of their Lottery, shall have the Option of Tickets to be deliver'd in Exchange in the next Lottery, upon paying the Company's Price to be set on the Tickets of that Lottery.

Also the Company will take in any of the Prizes of this present Lottery at the Rate of 12 Years Purchase in Exchange of a Life or Lives upon Annuities already by them granted, or in adding of Lives; but so as not to exceed three Lives at one time in being on any such Annuity.

They further declare, That any of the Company's Bonds which have stood out above six Months, will be taken in at Par, upon the Payment for the said new Stock which will be due the 5th of October next, and the Interest will be allowed to that Day.

Note also, That on and after the 25th Day of March next, the Company will pay all Interest unto last Christmas due on their Dividend Warrants, and unto last Midsummer due on their Call Warrants.

This is to give Notice, That several Gentlemen have purchased a great Number of Tickets in the ensuing Royal Lottery, and have agreed to dispose of the Chances of the said Tickets at Three Guineas each, and employed proper Persons to attend, at Randal's Coffee-house the Corner of Pope's-Head-Alley in Lombard-street, to dispose of them, the Purchasers paying only Six Pence Earnest in Part of Payment, until the Tickets be delivered out, and then the Chances shall be legally conveyed, and Copies of the Tickets that each respective Purchaser is entituled unto delivered, on Payment of the Purchase Money before-mentioned, and the Original Tickets lodged in the Bank of England, or some other good Hands, to secure the Purchasers that such Tickets as happen to come Prizes shall be delivered as soon as drawn unto those entitled thereunto, upon paying 10 l. the original Price of the Ticket, as usual; where they who had rather purchase Tickets than Chances, may have them at the Market Price, or may hire Chances by the Day, or for any certain Time, which in the former Lottery was called Hireing of Horses. NB. As there is already an Advance upon the Tickets, and but 7 l. 10 s. allowed for the Blanks, there will be more Gain [illegible] by buying Tickets than by buying Chances at this Price, besides the Difference of paying 10 l. or paying 7 l. 13 s. but 'tis presumed, as soon as these are disposed of, they will advance to a much greater Price.
